

Employment Law - Managing People in 2009 – Half day Course

Course Overview

This course provides delegates with an overview of the main developments in the crucial area of managing people for the coming year and offers the chance to discuss how these will affect the businesses of those attending. It will cover upcoming changes in employment law, any new case law and other key developments that will affect how people are managed.

The course will be facilitated by our new HR consultant, Emma Wynne, and will be informative, thought provoking and interactive. Emma has experience of working with companies of varying sizes and sectors, and is also a lecturer in HR related topics at the University of Northampton.

Who Should Attend

This course is aimed at any one who has responsibilities for managing people within their organisation, whether directly as line managers or indirectly as HR professionals or senior managers.

Course Content

Employment Law

- Summary of main changes in 2008
- Changes to plan for in 2009
- Case law to be aware of

Key Areas in 2009

- The effect of the economic downturn
- Summary of key statistics, trends and developments in the major areas of managing people such as recruitment, retention, reward and learning and development.

Practical Exercises

- Assessing the impact of legal changes on your business
- How best to manage people in the current climate to get the best for your business

Other

- Time to network with other businesses
- Question and answer session

Additional Information

- Course notes and Certificates provided
- Course timings – 9am arrival for a 9.30 am start, finish 12.30 pm
- Chance to network with other businesses and share experiences (refreshments provided)
- Free parking available on site
- Joining Instructions will be sent prior to attending the course

Course Costs

To book this course or for further information please contact the training team on Tel - 01604 655 900 or email – training@paradisecomputing.co.uk

